FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR

As we welcome the crisp fall air and watch the leaves change color, we are reminded of the beauty and transformation that this season brings. Fall is not only a time for cozy sweaters and vibrant foliage but also a perfect opportunity to learn something new and ignite your creativity.

I am excited to introduce our lineup of creative activities this September. Join us for Creative Art time every Monday, Crafts on Fridays and Creative Coloring on Saturdays, You won't want to miss our special Labor Day crafting event on the 2nd. Whether you're a seasoned artist or a beginner, you're sure to find a new artistic pursuit to enjoy this Fall.

Let's embrace the beauty of autumn together and make the most of these delightful activities. Looking forward to seeing you all there!

Warm regards,

Suddy Salgado, Administrator

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

We proudly recognize Olga Ortiz as Employee of the Month. With three years in Laundry/Housekeeping, she has consistently excelled, valuing both residents and her team. Known for her reliability, hard work, and caring nature, she always goes above and beyond. Outside of work, Olga spends time with her four children. Thank you, Olga, for your dedication.
